

Privacy/Data Statement

At Cornerstone Bank, we hold paramount our responsibility to maintain uncompromised confidentiality when it comes to for our customers' personal and financial information. One of our most important assets is our customers' trust.

We collect non public personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on applications or other forms, such as: your name, address, social security number or other financial information you may provide such as assets or income.
- Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates, or others, such as: payment history or your account balance(s).
- Information we receive from consumer reporting agencies, such as: your credit history.

We do not disclose any non public personal information about our customers or former customers to anyone, except as permitted by law.

Disclosure as Permitted by Law

We may disclose all of the information we collect, as described above, to service providers and other companies that may provide services on behalf of Cornerstone Bank (for example – check printing companies or our ATM card Vendor).

Confidentiality and Security

We restrict access to non public personal information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to guard your non public personal information.

To you have any questions or concerns about the integrity of your account information, please do not hesitate to contact us at info@cornerstonebank.net or 856-439-0300